Barb Carson loved her car.
It was a large, dark blue car.
It was a work of art and it was magic.

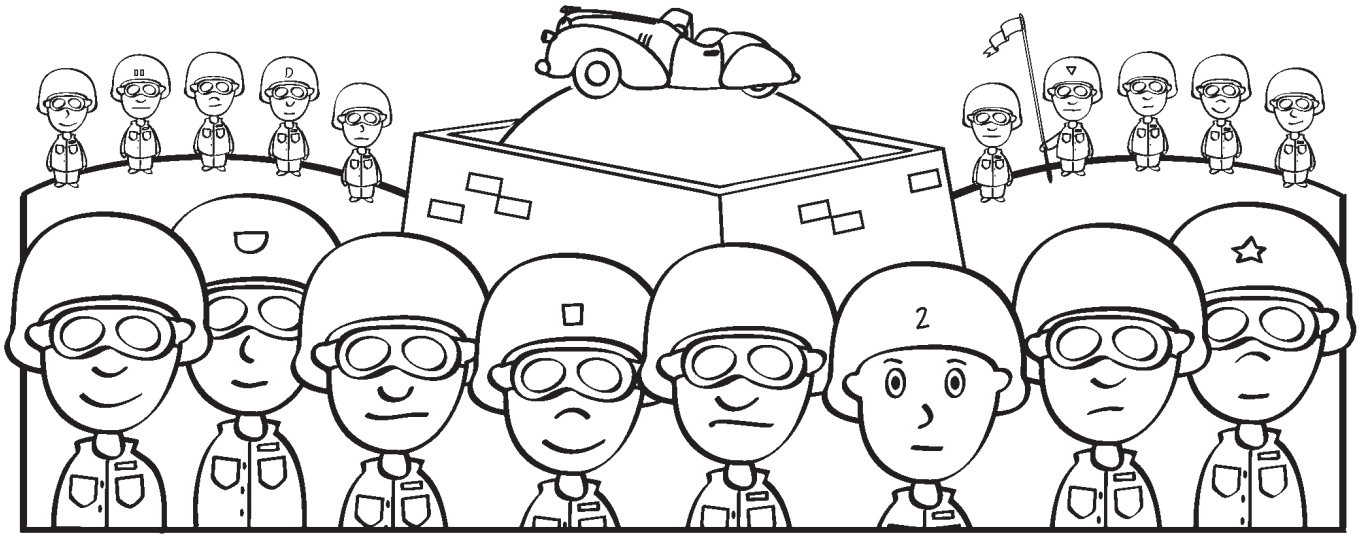

Barb's Sharp Car • R-Controlled /a/

3

People stared at Barb's dark blue car.
Dogs would bark when Barb honked
her horn at them.

4

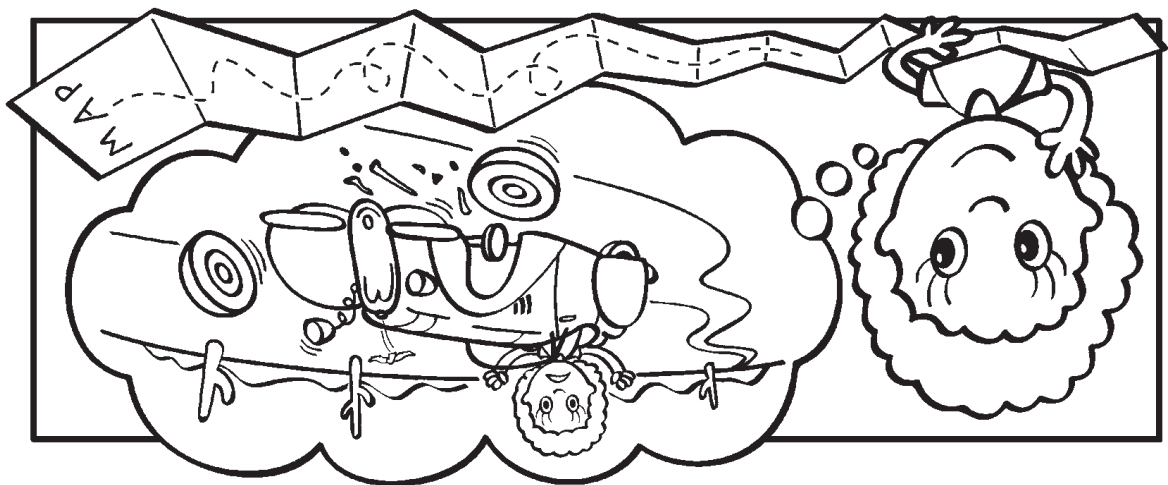

Barb loved her charming car.
She hired an army to guard it.
Barb did not want anyone to harm her car.

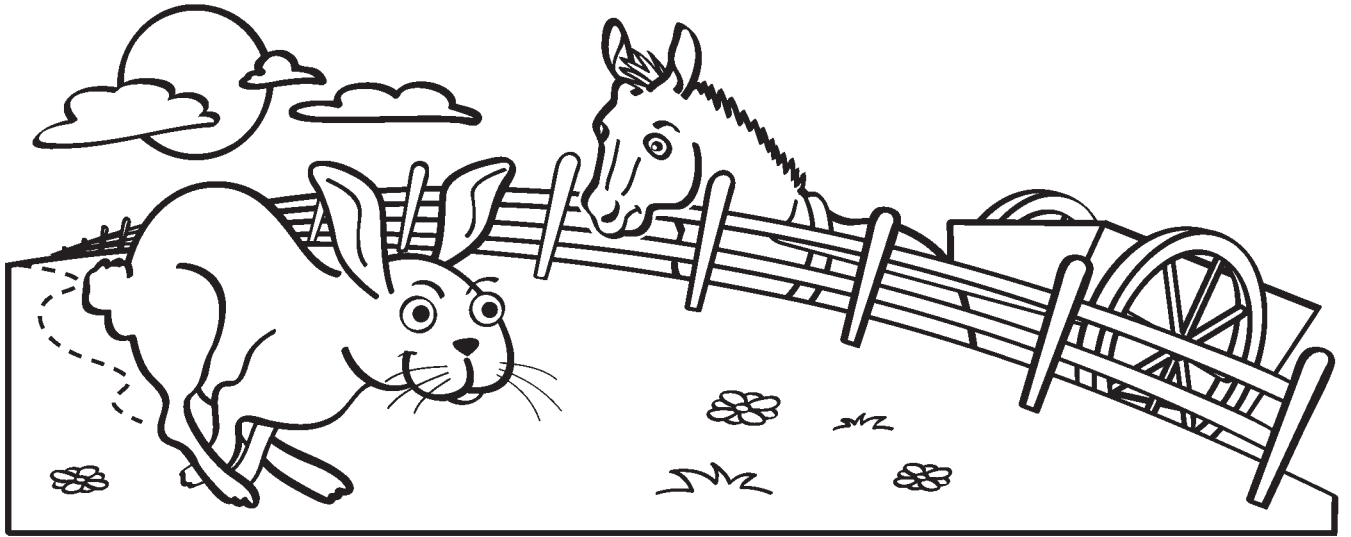

Barb's Sharp Car • R-Controlled /a/

5

In March, Barb wanted to take her car
for a long drive.
She wanted the air to blow through her hair.
She wanted to go as far as a distant star.

9

“My car can go as fast and as far as a hare can run,” thought Barb.

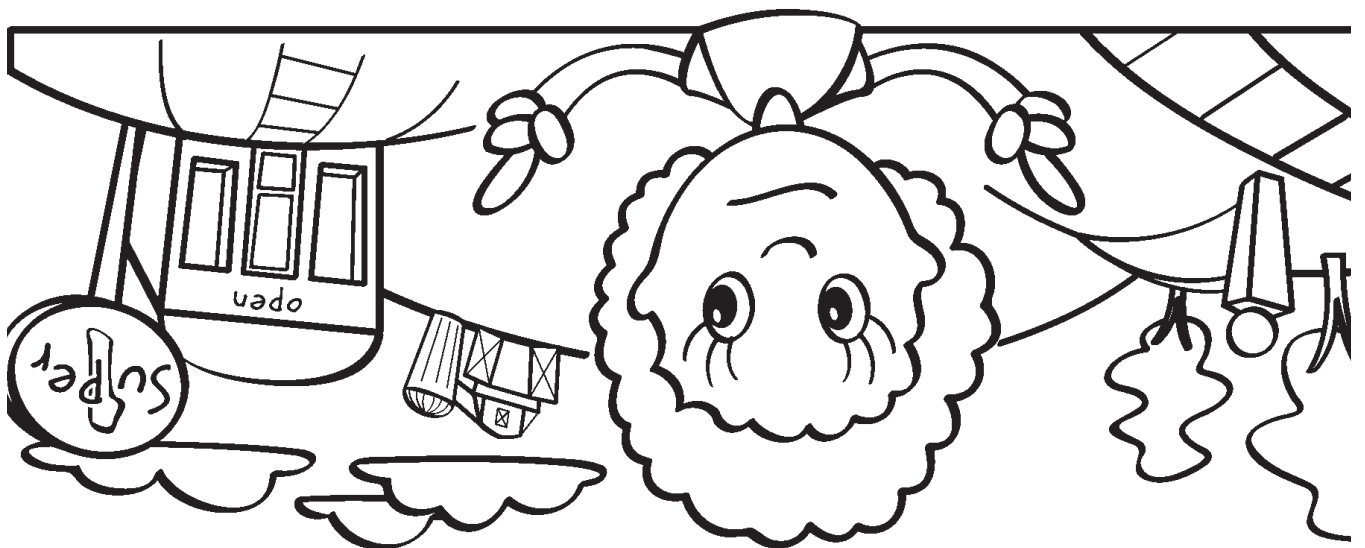

“I will start my trip in the morning.”

Barb's Sharp Car • R-Controlled /a/

7

She drove her car past the garden.
She drove it past the big barn on the farm.
Then she darted it past the food mart.

8

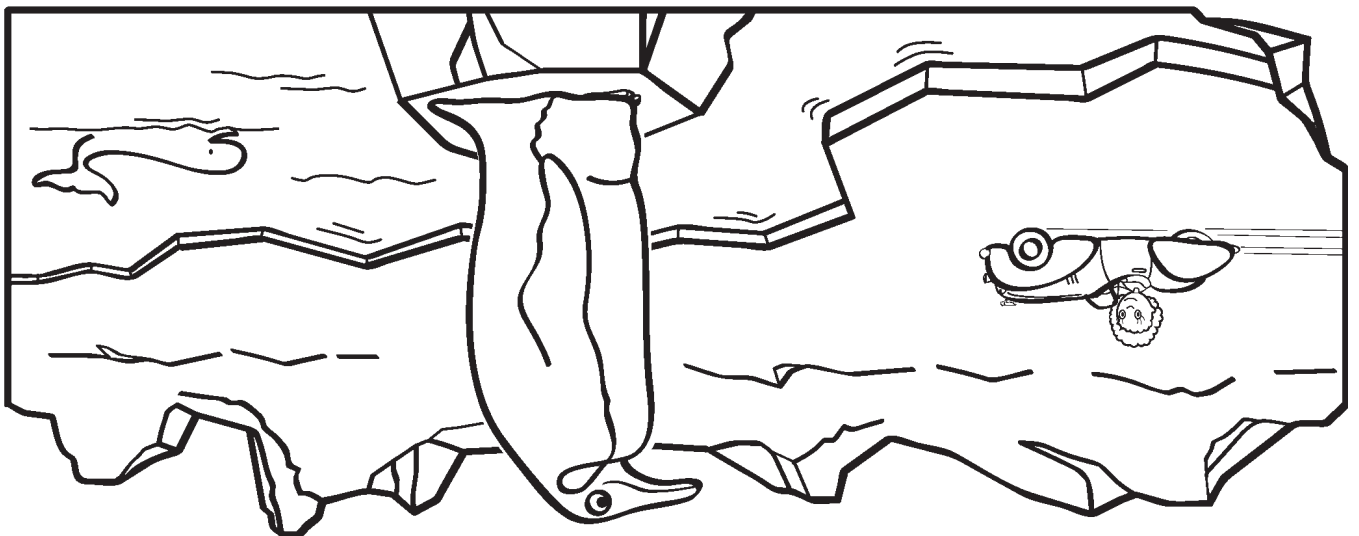

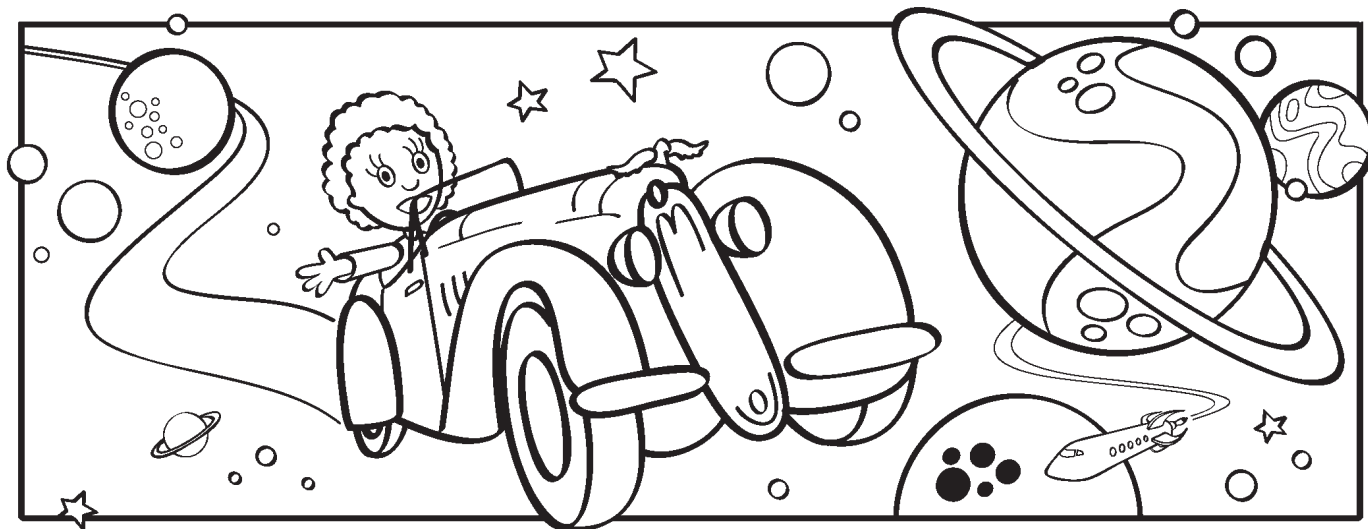

She drove her car under the arch
in the park.

She drove it to the marsh.

She drove her sharp car to a party.
She drove it over large ice caps.

She drove her magic car far into space.
She drove it past Mars.
She drove it through the stars.

Barb's Sharp Car • R-Controlled /a/

11

When Barb reached the sea,
She parked her car on a large barge.
She did not want the sharks to get her magic car.
So she rode an ark over the sea.
